CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Good Morning,

Yesterday, I created and opened this case, and realized after it was created that the parties were not designated as Plaintiff or Defendants. I then created and opened another case with the same parties, and was given case number 1:23-cv-10583. This morning, I received a notification that a judge was assigned to this case and that the parties have been properly designated. As a result, there are now two identical cases: Case number 1:23-cv-10597 and case number 1:23-cv-10583. I spoke with the helpdesk and was told to reach out to chambers to close out one of the cases. As a result, I am requesting that this case be closed out. If there is anything I need to do on my end, please let me know.

Very Best Regards,

--
